PETILLANT NATUREL CIDER

The first cellar series release from the 2019 harvest is named after our Orchard Manager, Benjamin Applegate. It is a petillant naturel cider made only from fruit of our Eden trees that he has so carefully biodynamically tended for the past 11 years. The varieties include French and English tannic apples and old American heirlooms. It is bright and incredibly juicy, with natural carbonation and no sulfur added.
